The partners of Arendt & Medernach are pleased to announce that their firm has been awarded once again the prestigious “Luxembourg Tax Firm of the Year” title during the International Tax Review’s European Tax Awards ceremony held at the Savoy Hotel in London on 18 May.

The European Tax Awards take place annually and recognise the leading tax professionals around Europe. The firms are judged on key criteria such as size, innovation and complexity of their transactions. Arendt & Medernach has already won the Luxembourg Tax Firm of the Year award in 2015.

Jan Neugebauer, Tax Partner, who accepted the Award on behalf of Arendt & Medernach, commented: “It is a great honour for our firm to be the Luxembourg Tax Firm of the Year once again. The award confirms that our strategy to provide the complete range of tax services from advisory to compliance and litigation in all areas of tax, including VAT and transfer pricing, is the right path for the future”.

Jean-Marc Ueberecken, Managing Partner, further added: “We are very pleased to have been recognised once again as the Luxembourg Tax Firm of the Year. This award complements the Tier 1 ranking of our practice area in major league tables. On behalf of all the partners, I would like to thank our 40 head strong tax team for their hard work and commitment over the last 20 years which makes our tax practice so unique.”
