World Law Group Presents Jay Carfagnini of Goodmans LLP with the 2017 Kemmler Award

Washington, D.C./It is with great pleasure that the World Law Group announces the presentation of the 2017 Kemmler Award to Jay Carfagnini.

A partner with Goodmans LLP, the World Law Group member for Ontario, Canada, Jay has been a champion of the network for almost 30 years. In addition to serving five years on the WLG Board of Directors, Jay started the network's Bankruptcy & Insolvency Practice Group and was chair of the group for 18 years. An active supporter of the WLG, Jay was instrumental in the recruitment of the WLG's first Chinese member firm in 2002. As a long-standing member of the network, his sound advice and practical counsel have been sought by many past WLG Presidents and Board members, as well as the WLG Staff Team.

Named after the late Klaus Kemmler, a founder of the World Law Group, the Kemmler Award is bestowed upon an individual in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the WLG. The highest honor award by WLG, its list of recipients is small and exceptional.

The World Law Group is an elite global network of 57 premier independent law firms comprising more than 18,000 lawyers, and which provide market-leading expertise and comprehensive business law services from 360 offices in major business centres in 78 countries.
