Two Market-Leading Firms Join World Law Group

Washington, D.C./Representatives from World Law Group member firms who attended the 2018 Spring Semi-Annual Conference in Costa Rica in late April voted unanimously to admit two top-tier firms into its membership.

Joining as WLG's member for the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Al Tamimi & Company (www.tamimi.com) is the largest law firm in the Middle East with 17 offices across nine countries. The firm has operated in the region for almost 30 years and is a full-service firm, specializing in advising and supporting major international corporations, banks and financial institutions, government organizations and local, regional and international companies. Clients benefit greatly from the combination of international experience and qualifications and the expert regional knowledge held by the firm's 350 lawyers. Among its many accolades, Al Tamimi was recently named "Best Regional Law Firm – Large Practice" at the Middle East Legal Awards and in late 2017, was recognized as "UAE Law Firm of the Year" at the IFLR Middle East Awards.

Samir Kantaria, Partner and Head of Employment at Al Tamimi, attended the spring event and provided an overview of the firm to WLG delegates in Costa Rica.

Campbells (www.campbellslegal.com), a leading full-service offshore law firm that was established in 1970, joined WLG as the member firm for the Cayman Islands. From the firm's three offices, the firm provides comprehensive corporate and litigation advice and services to clients worldwide in relation to Cayman Islands and British Virgin Islands law. The firm is regularly trusted to advise some of the most prominent names in finance, investment and insurance and is frequently involved in the largest and most complex transactions, disputes and insolvencies in both jurisdictions. The firm has been widely recognized for its expertise, including in the 2018 Chambers Global directory as a top-ranked firm.

Partners Andrew Pullinger and Simon Thomas introduced Campbells to conference attendees.

"The World Law Group is honoured to welcome these two exceptional firms into our organization, and we look forward to many years of collaboration with them in bringing the best possible service to our clients around the globe" remarked WLG President, Neil Sheehy.

World Law Group is an elite global network of 58 premier independent law firms, which provide market-leading expertise and comprehensive business law services from more than 400 offices in major business centres in over 80 countries.
