

CMS has been supporting clients in the rapidly developing and challenging Russian economy since 1992. We provide a full range of legal and tax services across expert and sector areas including Banking and Finance, Commercial, Competition, Corporate and M & A, Dispute Resolution, Employment, Energy & Resources, Projects & Infrastructure, Intellectual Property, Life Sciences, Tax and others.

We advise both international clients on every aspect of business in Russia, as well as assist Russian clients in Europe and beyond.

Our priorities are being client-centric, providing world vision and being performance driven to put your world first and work together to achieve this. Clients choose us for our in-depth knowledge of the Russian market, industry expertise, high-class service, cutting-edge know-how and resources available for projects and transactions of any scale, both domestic and cross-border.
