

Faegre Drinker is a firm designed for clients. With more than 1,200 legal and consulting professionals across the United States, London and Shanghai, we have the strength to solve your most complex transactional, litigation and regulatory challenges — wherever you need us. We partner with clients ranging from emerging startups to multinational corporations, delivering comprehensive and customized advice that advances your most ambitious business objectives.

Our culture is firmly rooted in relentless client focus and mutual trust that empowers collaboration. We listen actively, to understand your priorities and pressure points. We bring you fresh ideas that work. And we deliver excellence — without arrogance. We are committed to our communities and to building a diverse and inclusive firm that reflects those communities and our clients.

Faegre Drinker moves boldly into the future, investing in talent, technology and innovation to continually provide clients with efficient service, collaborative experiences, innovative approaches and value.

With extensive experience in the financial services, food and agribusiness, health and life sciences, insurance and retail industries, we serve clients in legal areas including benefits and executive compensation, corporate, government and regulatory affairs, health care, insurance, intellectual property, investment management, labor and employment, litigation, private client, product liability and mass torts, and real estate and construction.
