

Zhong Lun Listed in the Chambers FinTech Guide 2023

Chambers & Partners released its Chambers FinTech Guide 2023 on December 1, 2022, to celebrate the world's leading professional service providers in FinTech. Zhong Lun was ranked in the PRC Firms list.

Zhong Lun has made unwavering efforts to explore the frontiers of FinTech. Relying on the platform advantages of comprehensive law firms, high specialization and division of labor and seamless cooperation, as well as a thorough understanding of the laws of the financial markets and the dynamics of regulation, Zhong Lun has reinforced its presence in the field of financial science and technology, delivered premium performance in product design innovation, operation mode transformation, management system optimization, financial technology compliance, network security, personal information protection and other aspects and provided full process, one-stop customized legal services to propel its clients' financial technology innovation.

Chambers FinTech Guide is a reference guide for customers to reach out to leading professional institutions in the global FinTech industry. Chambers' research team based this annual guide on in-depth research on institutions in the fields of payment, blockchain, network security and data protection in more than 40 countries.