

World Law Group Presents Beth Castro with the 2019 Kemmler Award

Washington, D.C./It is with great pleasure that World Law Group announces the presentation of the 2019 Kemmler Award to Executive Director Beth Castro.

Ms. Castro started with World Law Group as the Administrator in 2002, being the network's second employee and the only employee at the time she joined. In 2012, she was promoted to Director, Group Services and in 2017 to Executive Director. Over the years, Ms. Castro has provided unwavering dedication and guidance, support and institutionalized stability to numerous Boards of Directors and nine presidents, not to mention the network's various operations, events and committees since its inception. Under her leadership, WLG has grown and flourished into an elite network.

Named after the late Klaus Kemmler, a founder of World Law Group, the Kemmler Award is bestowed upon an individual in recognition of their outstanding contributions to WLG. The highest honor award by WLG, its list of recipients is small and exceptional.
