World Law Group Member Firm ENSafrica Honored at the Chambers Africa Awards 2023

WLG member firm ENSAfrica (South Africa) won Uganda Law Firm of the Year at the Chambers Africa Awards 2023, which took place virtually on January 12. Speaking on the firm's win, Chambers says, "ENSAfrica is well known as a leading law firm in the fast-developing Ugandan market. Its extensive expertise covers a long list of practice areas, although the team stands out particularly for its handling of high-value M&A and financing transactions, as well as its frequent activity on many projects and energy mandates. It acts for some of the continent's most prominent financial institutions in addition to several multilaterals and Africa-focused investment funds, with its work for these clients ranging from multimillion-dollar loans to strategic microfinance deals." One of the firm's more notable transactions in Uganda was advising Afreximbank on the provision of a dual-tranche loan, with a total value of USD366 million, to the government of Uganda to support its infrastructure development and industrialization objectives.

The Chambers Africa Awards 2023 recognize a law firm's pre-eminence in key regional jurisdictions. They also reflect achievements over the past 12 months, including outstanding work, impressive strategic growth, and excellence in client service.
