World Law Group Member Firms Recognized at the Chambers Latin America Awards 2022

Four World Law Group member firms were recognized at the Chambers Latin America Awards 2022, held at the Emanuel Luxury Venue in Miami on Friday, October 28.

Arias (Costa Rica) was recognized as the El Salvador law firm of the year. Market commentators told Chambers, "their lawyers have proven to be one step ahead in preventing problems and handling complex situations. Arias has a very good team that has offered the highest level of service."

D'Empaire won Venezuela law firm of the year. An impressed client reported that "D'Empaire goes beyond purely legal advice and is a trusted adviser. The team is up to date with legal issues and challenges, and you cannot think of Venezuelan law without thinking of D'Empaire."

Bruchou & Funes de Rioja was the Client Service Winner for Argentina. One client noted to Chambers, "They are my first choice in Argentina. Their deep commitment and skilled team guarantee an excellent outcome for their clients. They are also always available and on top of new regulations and market trends."

In Uruguay, Guyer & Regules was recognized as the Client Service Winner. An impressed interviewee told Chambers, "I have nothing but gratitude for Guyer & Regules because they have been excellent; I really value that they always go the extra mile for us."

The Chambers Latin America Awards recognize law firms' pre-eminence in key regional jurisdictions. They also reflect achievements over the past 12 months, including outstanding work, impressive strategic growth, and excellence in client service. The event honors the work of national and international law firms across the region based on the research for the recent edition of Chambers Latin America Guide. These awards also celebrate Diversity and Inclusion achievements from across Latin America.
