Payet, Rey, Cauvi, Pérez Abogados announces five new partners

December 20, 2021

Payet, Rey, Cauvi, Pérez Abogados announces the appointment of five outstanding professionals as new partners of the firm.

- Julia Loret de Mola – Competition
- Brian Avalos – Labor Law & Immigration
- Alan García Nores – Corporate / M&A
- Luis Bustamante – Dispute Resolution
- Francisco Ugaz – White-Collar Defense

Julia Loret de Mola is Partner of our Competition area and specializes in competition law, administrative law, and commercial law. She has over 13 years of extensive experience in antitrust litigation in diverse industries, including the most relevant cartel investigations carried out in Peru, as well as merger control, compliance, and advertisement and consumer law.

"I am very happy to be a Partner of the firm that has been my home for almost 13 years. In these years, I have witnessed the continuous growth of an ethical and diverse law firm, whose main goal is to always provide excellent service to our clients, and I am proud to be part of this team. I am very grateful to work in a place with diversity and motherhood policies that allow me to combine my family life and my professional development in the best way.

I undertake this new challenge with responsibility and the commitment to continue providing our clients with the best service and contributing to the development of future generations," stated Julia Loret de Mola.

Brian Avalos is Partner of our Labor Law and Immigration area and specializes in labor law and labor procedural law. He has over 13 years of extensive experience in leading local and multinational clients on key labor issues, including salaries and benefits, internal policies and regulations, labor taxation, and workplace health and safety.

"I express my gratitude for my appointment as Partner of the Labor area, which I undertake with joy, responsibility and commitment. I will continue working with our excellent team of professionals to provide our clients with the best service," stated Brian Avalos.

Alan García Nores is Partner of our Corporate / M&A area and specializes in corporate and financial law, capital markets and mergers and acquisitions. He has over 12 years of extensive experience in advising banks and financial institutions as well as in the structuring and implementation of complex domestic and cross-border transactions and financial products.

"It is an honor to be recognized by the people I have worked with and learned from over the past eight years at the firm. I undertake this new challenge, aware of the implied responsibility and commitment towards our clients and towards the other lawyers of the firm," stated Alan García Nores.

Luis Bustamante is partner of our Dispute Resolution area and specializes in civil and commercial litigation, administrative litigation, civil rights litigation, dispute resolution and arbitrations. He has over 10 years of extensive experience in civil and commercial litigation and commercial arbitration.

"I am very proud to be part of the sustained growth of PRCP throughout my 10+ years at the firm. Today I take on the challenge of being a Partner in the Litigation area with the responsibility of continuing to provide excellent service to our clients. Furthermore, I express deep gratitude and appreciation to all the members of our team. With them, I am sure, we will continue to be leaders in the sector," stated Luis Bustamante.

Francisco Ugaz is partner of our White-Collar Defense area and specializing in criminal law and compliance. He has over 10 years of experience in corporate criminal law, in both litigations and consulting on corporate crime risk.

"I thank the Firm for this designation as Partner of the White-Collar Defense area. I undertake this role with great pride and with the responsibility of continuing to provide specialized services of the highest quality to our clients," stated Francisco Ugaz.

Co-Managing partner Juan Antonio Egüez adds "We are very proud of these 5 talented professionals, who represent the new generation of partners at PRCP. They are all natural leaders, and they are driving the growth and development of their respective practice areas."
