

Zhong Lun Ranked among “2022 ALB China Regional Ranking: West China Firms”

On July 21, 2022, the "2022 ALB China Regional Ranking: West China Firms" list was officially released by ALB. Zhong Lun's distinguished comprehensive strength and market performance earned it a position in the "Non-local Law Firm (West China Practice)" category.

Driven by favorable policies and regional characteristics, the legal market in the western region enjoys booming demand and will face more opportunities and challenges presented by the development of industries. Zhong Lun's Chengdu and Chongqing offices, which have been honing their capabilities in this region, follow the local industrial development strategies and leverage the platform advantages of Zhong Lun to foster synergy in capital market, M&A, dispute resolution, compliance, construction and project development, private equity and investment funds. Through regionwide division of labor and collaboration across the practice areas and industries and by virtue of its superb professionalism and premium services, Zhong Lun has been providing clients with high-quality and efficient legal solutions, and promoting a sound and orderly development of the legal market in the western region.

In addition to its rankings for the three regions of the Yangtze River Delta, South China and Circum-Bohai Sea, ALB debuted its ranking for the western region in 2022. The scope of its survey covers the key legal markets in the western region and focuses on the number of offices, staff size, market presence, comprehensive strength, development strategy in this region and unique strength of candidate law firms before finalizing the ranking.