Driven by China's 40 years of rapid economic growth, China's legal service industry has developed by leaps and bounds, especially in coastal cities and regions, a window of China to the world, where the demand for legal services is booming. Zhong Lun's offices in Shanghai, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, Qingdao, Hangzhou, Nanjing, and Haikou have been over the years catering to the local markets' needs by virtue of their unique geographical advantage and premium resources as well as the firm's overall strengths as an integrated legal service platform. Through refined division of labor and cross-field, cross-regional and cross-jurisdictional cooperation, Zhong Lun has continuously provided customers with high-quality and efficient legal services.

“ALB China Regional Law Awards 2021: The Coastal Areas” focuses on 11 provinces, municipalities and autonomous regions in the coastal areas of China, namely Liaoning, Hebei, Tianjin, Shandong, Jiangsu, Shanghai, Zhejiang, Fujian, Guangdong, Guangxi and Hainan, to pay tribute to top law firms, corporate legal teams and individuals with strong expertise, outstanding achievements and impressive performance in the regional legal service markets in China.
