

Zhong Lun Won "Beijing Law Firm of the Year" among Other Honors at ALB China Law Awards 2022

On July 21, 2022, Zhong Lun took home four awards including "Beijing Law Firm of the Year" at ALB "2022 China Law Awards".

- ✧ Real Estate Law Firm of the Year
- ✧ Wealth Management Law Firm of the Year
- ✧ Project Finance Deal of the Year--Beijing Universal Studios Theme Park Finance Project
- ✧ Beijing Law Firm of the Year

With Zhong Lun's professional upgrade fully implemented in 2021, the firm has further sharpened its business focuses and enhanced its service capabilities across the board. Against the headwinds of the pandemic and anti-globalization, Zhong Lun has always been at the forefront of the legal service market and facilitated clients in their pursuits of breakthroughs and innovations. Being a pioneer in various fields, such as financing, mergers and acquisitions, infrastructure, the Belt and Road initiative, debt restructuring, capital markets, and wealth planning, the firm has advised on scores of high-profile projects, including the Universal Beijing Resort, listing of Bosera China Merchants Shekou Industrial Zone Close-Ended Infrastructure REIT (one of the first batch of public infrastructure REITs) on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, the landmark Boten–Vientiane (China-Laos) Railway project and a full spectrum of associated legal matters under the Belt and Road initiative, and Sanpower Group's out-of-court debt restructuring (the first ever such restructuring of a large private business in China). The firm also makes history as the first Chinese lawyer leading the drafting of prospectuses in the domestic capital market.
