

Thank you to our members for making WLG | impact '23 a huge success.

Forty-seven member firms participated in WLG's third annual network-wide Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative during the month of June (and beyond). Members completed a variety of projects including sustainability challenges, educational programs, planting and recycling, carbon reduction, park and beach clean-ups, and implementing sustainable practices in their firms. See the highlights, quotes from our members, and project recaps below.

Responsible Business & Law Firms: Forging Connections

WLG interviewed member firms Chandler MHM Limited (Thailand), Guyer & Regules (Uruguay), Pellerano Nadal (Dominican Republic), Herzog Fox & Neeman (Israel), and Payet, Rey, Cauvi, Pérez Abogados (Peru) regarding their projects and how responsible business initiatives provide opportunities to establish and reinforce interpersonal connections between lawyers and professionals, the firms and their communities, and between the workplace and families.

From Our Members

"We have noticed that the events have helped to connect, and re-connect, previously detached groups of people, especially between lawyers and support staff, and also between different departments."

Pranat Laohapairoj, Chandler MHM Limited

"Due to our size and the number of years that the team members have worked together, the families are also part of the Firm. In the case of the beach clean-up, since it happens on a Saturday, most staff bring their spouses/partners and their children. Some have even brought siblings or parents! In the end, they are just part of the broader Pellerano Nadal family."

Looking Ahead

What is the role of a law firm in the mental health and well-being of its employees? The Responsible Business Forum will meet on October 17 at 9:30 AM EDT (13:30 UTC) to discuss Mental Health in the Legal Field. The group will address the importance of maintaining a work-life balance and share success stories of firm programs that have found effective ways to juggle the demanding careers and personal lives of their lawyers & professionals.
